

Students To Stage 3 Plays

Torrance High School drama students will again participate in the One-Act Play Tournament which is scheduled for March 27, it was announced by Louis Bereskin, faculty supervisor.

THS has sponsored this unusual activity for the last three years. Students write, direct, and stage their own plays following which awards are given for the best play, actor, and actress.

The awards are sponsored by radio and motion picture actress Rosemary DeCamp, wife of Judge John Shidler of Hollywood Riviera.

Three plays have been chosen from among eight original plays submitted this year. The plays and their authors are: "Dawn," by Leon Serin; "Safecracker's Suite," a comedy by Jerry Westmoreland and Frank Sheffield, and "Road to Freedom," by Carole Davis and Carl Larsen.

Following the tournament, a group of script writers from Hollywood, Mrs. Shidler and guest drama instructors from USC get together with the student authors and discuss their plays, Bereskin said.

PVT. COLLIE IN JAPAN

Army Pvt. Kenneth W. Collie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Collie, 447 East 220th street, Torrance, is serving in Japan at the Kokura General Depot. Private Collie has been assigned to the quartermaster section at the depot, which processes military supplies for United States security forces in Korea and southern Japan. Collie, whose wife, Rena, lives on Route 1, Broomfield, Colorado, entered the Army in September 1952 and completed basic training at Ford Ord, California. He arrived overseas last May.
